

RUSSIA READY FOR FIGHT
ROUGH CHARGES IN LLOYD CASE.

BOXALL GIRLS SWEAR THEY WERE RUINED BY LLOYD.

Sensational Testimony Given in the Contest to Try and Break a Rich Man's Will.

The startling developments in the Lloyd will contest have aroused the deepest interest in this community, where the deceased millionaire was so well known.

As a consequence the court-room was crowded before the case was called this morning, and continued to be thronged throughout the day.

No women were present, however, and the prurient details continued in the deposition of Lloyd's two nieces, Margaret and Nesta Boxall, who drank in only by the ears of men.

There were no specially sensational revelations brought out today. All the forenoon was taken up with reading the cross-examination of Margaret Boxall by W. S. Goodfellow, attorney for the proponents of the will. The revolting details of her alleged relations with her uncle came under more critical review, though Mr. Goodfellow had obviously shirked the grosser aspects of the case in his cross-questioning.

The only new thing brought out was the statement of Miss Boxall that her sister, Mrs. Little, had told her Mr. Lloyd had sustained ill-ill relations with his second wife prior to marriage.

As this is merely hearsay, it can have no weight as evidence. In the main the reading dealt with the revelations brought out yesterday, only the descriptions were more minute.

TESTIMONY TODAY.

The Lloyd contested will case was resumed this morning before Judge Hall and a jury in the Superior Court. Attorney Goodfellow, for the proponents of the will, continued the reading of the cross-examination of Margaret Boxall at the time her deposition was taken regarding her treatment by Capitalist Lloyd.

In the court room at the time of the opening were Fred Lloyd, the complainant, with his attorneys, Messrs. Waters and Wyllie; Captain Lloyd, his brother, who opposes his suit; Mrs. C. R. Lloyd, widow of the deceased; Mr. Crossly, her brother; J. Grow, the Lloyd manager in San Bernardino, and Miss Louise Wilkinson, one of the proponents of the will.

Shortly after the court opened, there was a consultation between these parties, the result of which was that the women retired from the scene.

Thus far, Miss Buttner, who according to the deposition of Margaret Boxall, was also a victim of Lloyd's caresses, has not put in an appearance. Her whereabouts are unknown, although she was formerly a resident of Sanoli in this county.

The Japanese female servant, who it is alleged by Miss Boxall, was subject to Lloyd's embraces, has also disappeared.

UNUSUAL INFLUENCE.

Resuming the reading after a recess of twenty minutes of the court, deponent stated that Lloyd had an unusual influence over his present wife because the latter had been Lloyd's mistress before she married him. Witness was asked how she had learned what she said about Mrs. Lloyd, and replied that she had been told so by a sister of hers. Lloyd would not readily part with his money. He was a great deal smarter than his wife. He was always sure that he had control over his wife.

When the reading reached the part referring to the locking of the door of Miss Boxall's room in Berkeley, Attorney Goodfellow said that he wanted to have the jury understand that that was not the door which the deponent said Lloyd had broken in in San Bernardino.

This was objected to by the complainant and the objection was sustained.

DOOR UNLOCKED.

Deponent claimed that, at times, she had left her door unlocked at night at the request of Lloyd, knowing that Lloyd was coming to see her at night. On such occasions, she would sometimes, when she heard Lloyd coming, get out of bed and lock the door. Lloyd used to tell her that it was more healthy to sleep in a room with the door open than to sleep in a closed room.

Deponent was asked why she made her deposition, and replied that Fred had enabled her to get out of her trouble and she thought it was only fair to help him in return.

Witness was asked how Fred had helped her, and replied that he had enabled her to get rid of Lloyd.

When asked why she had not informed her brothers in this city and England as to the way in which Lloyd had treated her, she replied that she did not want them to know what was going on. She had some feelings for her parents and she did not know what her brothers would do. She thought one of the brothers might shoot Lloyd. Witness admitted that her parents knew of the story she was telling when she was making her deposition. Lloyd always wanted her brother, Will, out of the way. Lloyd used to slap him with his open hand on the face. Witness did not know Lloyd was insane, and yet she thought he was insane on women. Witness had never received a Christmas present from Lloyd, although she had received such mementoes from Mrs. Lloyd and Miss Wilkinson. She thought her sister was also going to testify.

Counsel then read three letters from deponent addressed to Lloyd, telling how the writer, the deponent, appreciated him and thanking him for his kindness to her. The letters were written in 1902, at which time the writer was at school.

LETTERS READ.

Another letter was read from the deponent, in which she said she did not know Fred would give her his confidence. She explained that Lloyd

"THE NEWS FROM KOBE," THE MINISTER SAYS, "IS ABOUT AS UNRELIABLE AS NEWS FROM SHANGHAI."

HE REITERATED THAT THERE WAS NOTHING IN THE SITUATION IN KOREA TO OCCASION UNEASINESS.

"I HAVE NOT HEARD AND I DO NOT BELIEVE," ADDED THE JAPANESE MINISTER, "THAT RUSSIA HAS INTIMATED HER REFUSAL TO EVACUATE MANCHURIA AND THAT SHE HAS REFUSED TO ALLOW JAPAN TO INTERFERE WITH HER OCCUPATION. I SEE NOTHING IN THE SITUATION AT THE PRESENT MOMENT THAT SUPPORTS THE REPORTS OF A WAR-LIKE ATTITUDE ON THE PART OF RUSSIA OR JAPAN."

THE LATE N. W. SPAULDING.
Ex-Mayor of Oakland Passes Away While Attending to Patent Rights in the East.

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., October 8.—N. W. Spaulding, who was Mayor of Oakland, Cal., and who was Assistant Treasurer in San Francisco under President Garfield, died here last night, aged 74 years. Mr. Spaulding came here July 1 to develop some patents in which he was interested. He was a trustee of Leland Stanford University and was a thirty-third degree Mason.

Nathan W. Spaulding was born in North Anson, Maine, on September 24, 1829. He was of English ancestry, being a descendant of Edward Spaulding, who came to America from England in the earliest years of the Massachusetts colony and settled in Brimfield, Massachusetts, in the year 1636. From his mother Nathan inherited strong common sense and a remarkable faculty of reading and judging of character. He was the oldest of eight children, all boys. He was of sound constitution and sturdy frame and was ever a splendid exemplification of physical vigor.

STATE TO BRING SUIT.

TEXAS WANTS MONOPOLY IN EXPRESS BUSINESS BROKEN UP.

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 7.—Attorney General Warren Moore, on behalf of the State, has entered suit under the anti-trust law against certain railroad and express companies, alleging that certain corporations had entered into contracts whereby one express company, (named in the contract between the road and an express company,) was given a monopoly and that other express companies and persons were prevented from doing a express business on the roads having the contracts.

The Attorney-General prays for penalties and forfeiture of charter. The penalties in the suit filed aggregate $20,000.

The defendants are: the Rock Island Railroad Company and the United States Express Company, the Texas Pacific Railroad Company and the Texas Express Company; the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad and the American Express Company; the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass Railroad and the Wells-Fargo Express Company.

Mr. Moore states his intention to file forty-nine other suits of a similar character embracing every railroad company in the State.

Oakland took the second game from Portland, making it two straight for the series this week. The Recruits were outbatted by the Browns two to one but loose fielding prevented the Portland from winning. Thielman, the Portland pitcher, was in great form and allowed Lohman's men but four hits, struck out five and walked three but the team behind him was practically demoralized and did not try to give their pitcher the proper support. Cooper, while not brilliant by any means, pitched a steady and consistent game and with good support, had no difficulty in holding the Browns down to eight hits and three runs.

The San Francisco victory of Tuesday appears to be a flash in the pan for yesterday the Stars fell back into the old rut which they were in last week and the Angels up and beat them yesterday. Hodson attempted to twist them over the plate in approved style and in a way that would mystify the Los Angeles batters but he failed miserably for the Angels batted him all over the lot for twelve hits and as many runs. Doc Newton twined for the Angel band and was very effective, allowing but five hits and one run. San Francisco scored her lone tally in the first inning and never got beyond second base during the balance of the game.

The Senators are still on the tobacco and adding down the percentage column just as fast as they can lose games. Yesterday was no exception and the Senators lost the game to Seattle as gracefully as possible. The score was 4 to 3. The cause of Sacramento's loss is briefly told in the error column which foots up six misplays. Keffe pitched a good game and should have won under ordinary circumstances.

The condition of Charley Erwin, captain of the San Francisco team, who was hit on the head by a pitched ball last week, has taken a turn for the worse and he is now confined to his bed under a doctor's care. There is a rumor that a blood clot has formed on the brain.

Danny Shay distinguished himself yesterday by being the only man on the team that played all the games he should have played. He had ten chances and accepted all of them without the slightest suspicion of juggling and scored the only run made by the Stars in the entire game.

"Doc" Moskman gave a further demonstration of his versatility as a baseball player yesterday when he played short stop for Lohman. He had eleven chances and only made two errors that were not costly. Moskman has now played every position on the team except behind the bat and has shown himself the best all round pitcher in the league.

Jimmy Whalen has gone to the hospital and Harris is minus his star pitcher for a few days. The pitcher's wife called at the grounds yesterday and informed the manager that her husband had fallen from a wagon and sustained severe bruises.

Bobby Eager has demonstrated that he can play ball in first company during the past few days, by the way he is offloaded behind the bat for Dillon and caught such star pitchers as Newton, Corbett and Hall. He stands a very good chance of being on Morley's roll next year.

The news that Schmidt may return to the Oakland fold next season has been more than welcomed by the local fans. Schmidt did much to land the team for Oakland last year and his return would please the fans better than to see "Schmidt" as he is commonly called in an Oakland uniform.

The forfeits for the Britt-Seiger match have been posted and all that remains to be done before the fighters meet in the squared arena a week from tomorrow evening is to select the third man for the occasion. The forfeits cover both appearance and weight, and from the present outlook there will be no occasion for either having to forfeit.

Both men are down to weight already and will weigh in at Corbett's place on Ellis street in San Francisco at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the fight. They are bound by the articles of agreement to make 133 pounds at that time. One of the provisions of the articles is that the men must permit members of the press and representatives of the club to witness their weighing while training. In this way the public can be kept posted on the exact weight of the two men and a repetition of the Britt-O'Keefe fiasco avoided.

As yet nothing definite has been decided regarding a referee, but it lays between Eddie Graney and Eddie Smith, with a slight shade in favor of the local man. Britt is out very much in love with Graney, but he knows that Graney is square and will not object to him if the other side insists on him. Eddie Smith has fully as good a reputation as Graney for square-dealing, and as both Seiger and Britt like him, there is a good chance of his being selected to referee.

Britt's hand, which he injured on Rafael's head a few days ago, is completely recovered by the rest and he is at hard work again. He goes at the punching bag and his sparring partners with a vim that leaves no room for doubt as to his intentions on the evening of October 16th.

Seiger is in fine shape at the present time and there has been no let-up in his training since he installed himself at Sheehan's bench. He takes a morning and evening run on the road to take off weight and keep it off. He does plenty of gymnasium work and boxes long and fast with his sparring partners. Many interested spectators are to be found at his camp almost daily and they leave with a profound impression as to the abilities of the "Iron man."

PLAY FOR TRIP.

TAFT & PENNOYERS MEET CRESTS FOR TRIP TO LOS ANGELES.

The well known baseball team, playing under the name of Taft & Pennoyer, are matched to play with the Crests of West Oakland on Sunday morning for a substantial purse and trip to Los Angeles. This means that the winning team will be sent to the southern portion of the State as a representative team to meet the best amateur organizations in and around Los Angeles.

Such a prospect before them the two teams will play the best they know how and the game should be one of worth witnessing. Manager Thiele has a new pitcher by the name of Bill Cerrill, whom he imported from the north. Manager Silvia also has some new stars in the persons of Anderson, Denney and Simpson. The game will be called at 9:30 a. m. at the grounds at Nineteenth and Peralta streets.

The teams will line up as follows:

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Gaiety Girl," which was presented at the Macdonough Theater last night by the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company, was a great success. The play is dashing and clever and is full of jesting, tuneful songs and the happy freedom of childhood.

The company will change the bill every night this week. Tonight it will be "Paul Jones." Friday night, "An American Millionaire." Saturday night, "The Gaiety Girl." Sunday night, "The Gaiety Girl." and Sunday night, "The London record-breaker, 'Dorothy'."

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of next week the "Princes of Pilsen" will be produced at the Macdonough. This is a splendid comedy and it is expected that it will bring down the house.

A knight of the boxing gloves who answers to the name of Al Neill when the roll is called and another who is known to the sporting world as "Dixie Kid" are hard at work training for their second meeting which takes place on the evening of October 20 before the Sequoia Athletic Club of this city. They were matched by matchmaker Matt Riley to box fifteen rounds at 152 pounds and it is expected that the contest will be an extra good one.

These two met at Los Angeles some months ago and after twenty rounds of hard mulling "Dixie Kid" was given the decision. Neill maintained that he was out of condition at the time and fought the negro under the impression that he was an easy game and would show a yellow streak. The result was that he lost the decision. Since then Neill has taken a long rest and regained his old-time vigor. At the time of his last meeting he was worn out with incessant training and was somewhat stale in addition to being out of condition. It is different now and he expects to get the decision if he does not knock the negro out before the end of the fifteenth round.

"Dixie Kid" is no boxer. He never claimed to be one, but he can fight from the drop of the hat and keep it up almost indefinitely. He has a punch that will win any fight if he lands it right and his record shows that it has landed quite frequently. His best battles this year are the ones with Neill, La Fontaine and Kline. He got the decision over the first named in twenty rounds, knocked La Fontaine out in ten rounds and did the same thing to Eddie Caine in two rounds.

The two preliminaries to this event are good ones and will be six-round battles between Bobby Johnson and Jack Evans at 112 pounds and George Brown and Gus Saulsbury at 145 pounds.

TRYING TO BREAK WILL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Sarah B. B. Borer of Council Bluffs, Iowa, is contesting in the Supreme Court here the will of her cousin, Miss Mary Beach Tousey, who died in 1899 at the age of 70, leaving an estate worth about $250,000 to be distributed among the charitable and religious institutions. Mrs. Borer alleges mental incapacity and undue influence in the execution of the document.

Miss Tousey inherited her fortune from Sinclair Tousey and resided in this city. She took great interest in charitable and religious work and was connected with various institutions of this character. She made special bequests to a few institutions and left her residuary estate to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church to be distributed equally among the Freedman's Mission, Indian Mission, Domestic Mission and Foreign Mission.

COMPOSER OF CHURCH MUSIC.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Peter A. Schneck, widely known as a composer of church music, has been found dead in bed at his home here. During the past thirty-two years he served as organist of the West Presbyterian Church, having been absent only four times.

SOCIETY FOR GIRLS.

BERKELEY, October 8.—The lack of a gymnasium at the Berkeley High School has led the girls of the institution to organize the "Berkeley High School Girls' Athletic Association."

The young women of the school have always shown the greatest interest in athletics and have now decided to establish a gymnasium in the school, but the lack of funds has always entered in the defeat of the scheme.

Meetings will hereafter be held every Tuesday afternoon in the Woodman Hall. Short black skirts and white blouses with red hearts will be worn and fencing practiced under an expert trainer.

DEATH OF MRS. TEMPE.

Mrs. Isabella Tempest died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Constable, of Sixteenth street, East Oakland, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Tempest had reached the ripe age of 86 years, having lived a most useful life. She leaves five daughters—Mrs. L. W. Cooley, Mrs. W. M. Constable of this city, Mrs. L. McKellar of Berkeley, Mrs. A. B. Stoddard of Virginia, Nevada, and Mrs. S. A. Davidson of Chicago; also eleven grandchildren. She was held at the home at 10 o'clock this morning and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Stone. Interment was in Mount View Cemetery.

There is a possibility that Matchmaker Mahony of the Reliance Athletic Club may not get Joe Millett and Billy Woods for the main event of the club's show on October 27th after all. Mr. Mahony was over in San Francisco all morning in consultation with the representatives of the two men to try and arrange the terms satisfactorily.

The men agreed to meet at 105 pounds and the match was virtually made although the papers were not signed. Now Millett wants to have the limit raised three pounds and refuses to meet Woods unless the latter will agree to his demands. So far Woods has remained firm in holding Millett to the original weight.

Millett claims that he cannot make the 165 pound mark but can get down to 163 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon quite easily. To some of the disinterested spectators of the game or words it looks like a case of "cold feet" on the part of Millett.

If no agreement is reached within a day or two the match will be declared off and either Harry Foley or Dave Barry matched with Woods. Millett will be given every opportunity to change his mind and the signing of some one else will be a last resort.

Y. W. C. A. BUILDING.

At the meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association on Franklin street last Tuesday, it was decided to at once begin the erection of the new building which the ladies have been working for so long.

The sewing school, boys' clubs and kindergarten on Dennison street have been closed for several months on account of lack of room and the ladies hope to have the school inclosed before winter and open the classes once more.

An additional six hundred dollars is needed to let the contract for the building. A check may be sent to Mrs. Kees B. Thompson, treasurer, at 1424 Franklin street.

The Stanford football eleven experienced their third defeat in the matter yesterday. Their opponents, the Palo Alto High School, scored a 5 to 0 victory over the Stanford team. As the victory was made up mostly of the defeat of Palo Alto Athletic Club members, who lost last week's game to the Berkeley Freshmen at 12 to 0 the result of the intercollegiate game to be played on the 16th does not look at present to be very promising for the Freshmen wearing the cardinal.

The Stanford formation was so loose and the team work so poor that the High School boys experienced scarcely the slightest resistance.

The game, Big Jim Welles, playing Freshman full-back, backed through the guards and tackled three times consecutively, and made the yard.

On the next down, Stinger made a fifty-yard run to a touchdown on the quarter-back play, and the Freshmen began to feel hopeful. But Dole passed the seal and there ended the brilliant half on the part of the college team.

The second half was opened by Swain, playing High School full-back, making a sensational run. The Freshmen kicked the opposing eleven down the whole length of the quadrangle, and followed this up by making a well-directed kick between the goal posts. Thereafter until the finish of the game the advantage was all with the Freshmen.

The resulting scores yesterday were: Stanford, 14; Palo Alto, 5. The Stanford Freshmen have participated in that realization may look some encouragement concerning the possibility of their approaching contest with the Berkeley eleven.

Referee—Professor C. R. Lewis. Twenty-minute halves.

"Doctor" Moskman can play with the Los Angeles team any time that he can get his release from Pete Lohman. Jim Morley, manager of the Los Angeles team, has been an admirer of Moskman for some time past and yesterday he had the following to say about the Oakland player:

"If Pete Lohman does not want Doc Moskman next year will buy him a good figure. I think Moskman is a grand ball player. I guess he is a bad hitter, and a rotten pitcher. They say he didn't play a good third up here. I wish you could have seen the way he played against us. I never saw better throwing from third to first in my life."

Some people have an idea that the Oakland team is a gang of bums, and can't play ball. I want to say that if I were allowed to sign any players I wanted to strengthen my team. Oakland would be the only team I would pick from. They have an infelder, and outfielder, and a pitcher that I could use. The local team certainly has a bunch of good ball players, but they have been playing out of luck and there has been more or less dissension among the players and that always has a tendency to demoralize a team, no matter how good the players are.

MOONSHINE POLITICS. THE IMPENDING CONFLICT.

It is rather early to discuss the merits of Supervisorial candidates, as more than a year will elapse before the next election will be held, but the political lightning calculator is already in the field with his horoscope of the future. He has looked at the moon over his left shoulder and found it full at the quarter, just as a rabbit crossed the road in front of a cross-eyed "coon" followed by a brindie dog with one white eye, and realizes that he is the seventh son of a seventh son, gifted with all the knowledge of the stars. So he sets about arranging the political chessboard to suit himself.

The whole of this business has its origin in the desire of somebody to fill the seat of H. D. Rowe now occupies in the Board of Supervisors. It is a vain hope, if we take as a guide the disposition and good sense usually exhibited by Alameda county voters. Mr. Rowe represents an unusually intelligent, well-informed and independent constituency, embracing portions of Oakland and Berkeley. Except for the artificial line of demarcation represented by the incorporation boundary, the district is geographically compact and the constituency homogeneous and harmonious. There is no conflict of interest between the Berkeley and Oakland ends of the district, and the only geographical issue involved is the ambition of somebody to occupy Mr. Rowe's seat in the County Board. Even this person is still in the bushes, but it is to be presumed that he lives in Berkeley, as the political astrologer disqualifies Mr. Rowe because he lives in Oakland.

A capable, upright and energetic official is not going to be displaced upon such a trivial ground. As a wide-awake, progressive man, Mr. Rowe is an advocate of good roads and other improvements calculated to promote the growth and convenience of his county. He has consistently favored the construction of the tunnel road into Contra Costa County and the scenic highway to Hayward. These are projects that commend themselves to every progressive citizen in the county. But the Supervisors have been unanimous in authorizing those projects which are approved by the chief commercial bodies in the county. Holding Mr. Rowe personally responsible for them is, therefore, crediting him with a commanding influence in the Board. That he is very influential is true, but he is far from being the whole Board.

If voters in the Berkeley end of the district are to oppose Mr. Rowe because they are not directly interested in the tunnel road and the scenic highway, then the voters in the Oakland end should stand by him to a man, for East and North Oakland will derive the greatest immediate benefit from those enterprises. It is as broad as it is long.

As to the tax levy being too high, the tunnel road and the scenic highway are far less responsible for it than the increase in the State levy. But for the 17 cents increase in the State levy, the levy in Alameda county would be lower than it was last year. It is nonsense to say that we should do without necessary county improvements because the State levy has been increased 40 per cent.

It is claimed that Berkeley should have a Supervisor. There might be some merit in that contention if Berkeley constituted a district by itself, which it does not. One-half the city, or more, lies in Supervisor Mitchell's district. The inhabitants of West Berkeley have as much right to claim Mr. Mitchell's seat for a Berkeley man as a portion of the residents of East Berkeley have to claim Mr. Rowe's seat. The same objections—if they can be called objections—that are urged against Mr. Rowe can be urged with equal force against Mr. Mitchell. East Berkeley is no more entitled to a Supervisor than is West Berkeley. Besides there are more residents in Mr. Rowe's district outside of Berkeley than in it. Assuming for the sake of argument that there is merit in this geographical contention, the superior claim does not rest with the Berkeley people.

However, the poor policy of displacing tried and true officials to make room for new and untried men has been sufficiently demonstrated.

Messrs. Rowe and Mitchell have proved their fidelity to public interests, as well as their capacity for protecting the public welfare. The sections of their districts in which they've cut no figure. It is impossible for a man to live in two places. It is ridiculous to think of taking Supervisors from first one section and then another. There would be continuous changes going on. Experience would perpetually give place to inexperience.

AN OLD-FASHIONED MONARCH. Chips From Other Blocks.

Jacques Lebaudy, the wealthy young Frenchman who has recently assumed the title of Emperor of Sahara, is determined to equip his realm with all the appurtenances of an approved monarchy. He has bought a guillotine and is preparing to establish a state church, whose clergy will be appointed and paid by himself. Evidently he is determined that neither heresy nor disloyalty shall flourish in his dominions. If he has to execute his subjects for treason, he will provide for their salvation in the next world.

The Emperor of Sahara has evidently studied with approval the course of Constantine the Great and Philip the Second. With an army and a clergy devoted to his interests, he may reign in security and prosperity successfully. He may have to use the guillotine occasionally, but doubtless that expedient will be resorted to more in sorrow than anger—for the good of society and the salvation of men's souls. The safety of the state must be secured at all hazards.

No doubt can be entertained that Emperor Lebaudy is true kingly stuff. His thoughtful regard for the souls of his people shows that. His purchase of a guillotine proves that he is forethoughtful in the matter of preparing for emergencies. He knows what is requisite in preserving order and religious propriety. A throne is reasonably safe when surrounded by soldiers, priests and a guillotine. Long live the Emperor Jacques Lebaudy of Sahara! He is every inch a king.

We are in favor of any scheme of street cleaning that promises to be effective, but we don't mind whispering in confidence that we would like to see the streets made worth cleaning.

How easily the world is humbugged! The quarrel between a voice culturist and a "Hindoo astrologer" in San Francisco reveals the fact that the two fakerys are a couple of Boston elevator boys, who have started out to make their fortunes by playing on the gullibility of people in general. It is useless, however, to expose such humbugs, for the people who patronize them will straightway become the dupes of other equally imprudent impostors.

IVY LYONS AND ELMA ERICSON AT IDORA PARK.

The California Bright Lights are winning golden opinions from the large crowds, which have witnessed their stunning performances at Idora Park this week. The twelve young ladies who make up the company are a credit to the vaudeville profession. They are clever and charming and have made a most favorable impression on everybody. Their act is a complete vaudeville show in itself, being composed of six or eight different numbers, including songs, dances, character sketches, whistling solos, drill, x-rayphone solos, grand marches, etc. This move of Manager Mackintosh's is a commendable one, as it furnishes a delightful change from the usual vaudeville entertainment.

Miss Nicholson, the talented soprano, is one of the most winsome and charming young ladies Oakland has ever seen. Her voice is all that could be desired and her costumes are most elegant and costly. Her selections are the very latest and her success is simply established.

The entire bill is excellent from beginning to end. At its conclusion, new moving pictures, which include views from all over the world, views of comedy, mystery, etc., are enjoyed.

The great coal mine, laughing gallery, scenic railway, etc., are still retaining their popularity, and are being well patronized daily and nightly. The infant incubators, too, are attracting much attention and interest, as well as the performing seals and sea lions.

There is a matinee every afternoon except Monday, and Friday night is amateur night.

Mr. Bigney gives an exhibition of his high diving every afternoon and evening. The admission to the theater is 10 and 20 cents.

MANILA CONSTABLES SOLD THEIR GOODS.

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 8, 6:15 P. M.—It is now learned that George Herman and C. J. Johnson, the constabulary officers stationed at Misamis, Mindanao, now fugitives from justice, not only took six thousand dollars in coin from the safe, but also turned most of the supplies into cash before their dramatic exit on the vessel they appropriated. They took the steamer Victoria of 36 tons register and got sufficient coal from the steamer Irene, by threatening the captain at the point of a revolver, to carry them to Balanguao, a town on the north shore of the island. Here they secured wood and water before putting to sea again. They should have reached Sandagan, Borneo, today. A cable was sent to the Governor of Borneo advising him of their departure and he at once dispatched the coast guard steamer Ranger to look out for them. Herman, who was recently promoted to a captaincy, was formerly a non-commissioned officer in the Ninth Infantry. He comes from Philadelphia. Johnson, a lieutenant, was formerly a non-commissioned officer in the Eleventh Infantry. He is a native of Woodbury, Pennsylvania.

And next, in manhood's noonday heat, From fair to fair I lightly swung; Half way they would my woman meet— That is the way when men are young. About their petticoats I hung I trow they never found me old; Love's changes then I gayly sung; 'Tis different when one is old.

To sit upon the anxious seat, The all-too-willing maid to cheat— With foolish dreams one's self to cheat— That is the way when men are young— With sweetest poison to be sung. To waste at night and at day; 'Tis different when one is old.

Miss Sarah Josephine Mosbacher of this city and Samuel Behrendt of Los Angeles were married last evening in the Ethel Club rooms in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives.

The club rooms were prettily decorated in pink and white blossoms, smilax, ferns, etc. Beneath a large chandelier, from which was suspended a huge wedding veil, the young couple were united by the Rev. Dr. Friedlander, rabbi of the First Hebrew Congregation.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white panne satin. The skirt had a long train and the bodice was trimmed with a deep transparent yoke, outlined with a berthe of real lace. Real orange blossoms held her magnificent tulle veil in place and she carried a Bible.

Mrs. John Kahn of Los Angeles attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore white point de esprit and carried American beauty roses.

As the bride entered the hall leaning on her father's arm, five young ladies sang the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," and an orchestra played softly during the ceremony.

The parts will be taken by Miss Sevilla Hayden, Miss Helen Dornin and Miss Kutz, assisted by Willard Barton, Dr. Fred Davis, George Walker and Frank Kutz.

IT'S A MISTAKE.

To Attribute Coffee Ills to Poor Grades of Coffee.

Many people lay all the blame for the diseases caused by coffee upon the poorer grades of coffee but this is an error as the following proves: "I have used every kind of the best grade of tea and coffee that can be got from a first class grocer but never found one that would not upset my nervous system and it was not until I began to drink Postum Food Coffee in place of coffee and tea that I had relief from the terrible attacks of nervous sick headache from which I had suffered for 36 years. I had tried all kinds of medicines but none helped me. I then began to drink Postum and the headaches grew less and it was not long until I was entirely cured and I have never had a return of this distressing trouble for now days I never drink coffee but stick to Postum."

"As soon as my wife saw what Postum had done for me she gave up coffee which she had drunk all her life. This was six weeks ago and she is a changed woman for her nervousness has all disappeared, her face has become smooth and her cheeks have a good, rosy red color. She sleeps well too, something she could never do while she drank coffee. We consider Postum a household necessity in my home and have induced many friends to try this wonderful food drink in place of coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
